

Assumptions made

- 1 state can be represented by more than 1 representative, but each representative can only represent 1 state.
- A representative MUST represent a state, but a state can have no representative.
- Each representatives can vote for more than 1 bill, and each bill can have more than 1 representatives.
- Each representative doesn't have to vote for a bill, and a bill can have no votes.
- Each representatives can sponsor many bills, and 1 bill can be sponsored by many representatives.
- Each representatives can choose not to sponsor a bill, but a bill MUST be sponsored by a representative.

Actor

Payut Surapinchai